An Idyllic Venue

Nestled in The Marlborough Sounds, Punga Cove is a truly idyllic resort, surrounded by the natural beauty of the forest-clad hills and the azure crystal waters of Endeavour Inlet, what better place to have your wedding?

Take time out with your friends and family and tailor-make your wedding to suit. Just let us know what you would like for your dream wedding and utilise our experience to make your dream come true. We take care of every detail whilst you relax and enjoy the beautiful surroundings.

Celebrate in Style

Why not make your special day last a whole weekend? When you arrange a gathering at Punga Cove, the whole resort can be at your disposal, booked entirely for you.

In our experience guests usually arrive a day or two before the wedding and have the opportunity to relax and reacquaint themselves with friends and family. Have a simple gathering in the bar the night before the celebration, the wedding and reception on the day and a brunch on the following morning to swap stories and reminisce before your guests begin to depart.

Punga Cove is ideal for smaller intimate wedding groups, as well as groups of up to 40-60 guests.

Accessible by road, water and helicopter it is easy to get Punga Cove. We are happy to coordinate your transport requirements and help each and every guest make their travel and accommodation plans, so you can sit back, relax and savour the experience.
